

STATE TOP STARS 4-H CLUB RABBIT PROJECT BOWL

Whether you are new to the 4-H Rabbit Project or know a lot, come and learn more!

Project bowl competition is the second most attended event during the 4-H year. It's patterned after the golden-oldie television show "College Bowl"; it challenges teams of 4-6 youth on their knowledge of the 4-H Rabbit Project. Team practices will begin in January for the Regional Bowl in March.

GRADES: Any youth in 3rd to 8th grade.

DATES: Wednesdays, starting January 10 and concluding with the Regional Tournament on Saturday, March 17 in Grand Rapids.

TIME: after school (3-pm) to 5:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Backus Community Center, Room 205

Youth will be able to Ride Bus #32 to St. Thomas where 4-H Staff will meet them and walk them over to the Backus Community Center. A healthy afterschool snack will be provided.

COST: $30 per youth, which includes team shirt. Make checks payable to NORTH COUNCIL 4-H LEADERS or request a scholarship on the form below.

REGISTRATION: members MUST have completed the Annual Enrollment at <https://mn.4honline.com> before they are able to participate. Please select "State Top Stars" as your 4-H Club, and "Rabbit" as your project area.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Stacy Hall, 4-H Program Coordinator at (218) 324-2709 or smhall@umn.edu.
