Minnesota 4-H Youth Development Program
Constitution and Bylaws for Federations and Councils
Jackson County 4-H Federation MN

To be completed and used by all Minnesota 4-H County Federations and Councils

Introduction

- Minnesota 4-H federations/councils are educational organizations under the Regents of the University of Minnesota.
- This model constitution and by-laws state the required provisions of all Minnesota 4-H federations/councils.
- The only sections of this document that can be changed are those that are printed in Italics. In these sections counties can use the example language that is provided or a county can choose to use their own wording.
- If Federations/councils have additional rules, guidelines and best practices that align with this model and with Minnesota 4-H policies this should be included in a separate document and MUST be turned in with the constitution/by-laws.
- Attach a copy of the adopted constitution and by-laws, along with any additional rules, guidelines and best practices to the annual 4-H Federation/Council charter by November 30, 2015.
- If any changes are made to these documents throughout a 4-H year, the documents with the new changes MUST be turned in with the annual charter.
