Swift County 4-H
Meritorious Service Award

Nomination Form

Name of Nominee: ____________________________________________

Write a short paragraph below indicating why you would like your nominee to be considered for the Meritorious Service Award. This award can be presented to a person directly involved with the 4-H program (i.e. club leader, board member, parent, project leader, etc.)

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________